

Mr. Thrasher.

The latest news from this gentleman which we can really consider authentic is in the following from the New York Times of Monday:

In PRISON, HAVANA, NOV. 14 1851.

To the Editor of the New York Daily Times:
Sir.—In consequence of the thousand false reports that are circulated in regard to myself I would request you to deny explicitly that there have been found among my papers any letters or documents that compromise any one in any manner whatever, not even myself, if I am allowed the advantage of defense.

I refrain from further remark pending my trial.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. S. THRASHER.

We received the foregoing letter yesterday. It shows that on the 14th inst., Mr. Thrasher had not been garroted. It shows, however, that he had not been tried. The Georgia, which arrived last Tuesday night, left Havana on the 15th, and brought news that he had been tried, convicted, and sent to a fortress on the coast of Morocco for eight years' confinement. Another account says that his trial lasted an hour and a half,—that he had not been tried,—that two of the Court (which consisted of three) voted to garnet him, and that the Captain General having two votes, with the third member of the Court, changed the sentence to one of long imprisonment. How much of this is true, we have not yet means of knowing.

The President has received a letter from Mr. Thrasher's mother, setting forth his situation, and making an appeal to the government.
